

Posted: October 2008

Becky Decker Joins DMS, LLC, as Administrative Assistant

Becky comes to Direct Marketing Solutions with more than 20 years of administrative assistant/office management experience. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Lakeland Community College with an Associate's Degree in Business Administration. Her previous work experiences include positions in businesses ranging from engineering consulting to health club management.

She is the mother of four grown children and the very proud grandmother of two grandsons. She has been very happily married for more than 28 years to her husband David. Her hobbies include sewing (especially baby quilts), making greeting cards, baking, and reading.